

It is possible to get an extension of up to 6 weeks if you are unable to meet the deadline. In order to do so, an email should be forwarded to the exam office outlining the reasons why you are not able to complete your thesis in time. This will be forwarded to Professor Bajorath who decides whether he will grant the extension and also the length of the extension.